Michael Baker Corporation Enters Into Agreement To Be Acquired By Integrated Mission Solutions, LLC

PITTSBURGH - July 29, 2013. Michael Baker Corporation ("Baker") (NYSE MKT:BKR) announced today that it has entered into a definitive merger agreement to be acquired by Integrated Mission Solutions, LLC ("IMS"), an affiliate of DC Capital Partners, LLC ("DC Capital").

Under the terms of the agreement, which has been unanimously approved by Baker's Board of Directors, Baker shareholders will receive $40.50 in cash for each share of common stock that they own, in a transaction valued at $396.9 million. The per share price represents a 37% premium to Baker's closing share price of $29.60 on July 26, 2013, a 55% premium to the average 90-day share price, and a 93% premium to the share price on December 18, 2012, the day before DC Capital publicly proposed to acquire Baker.

Under the terms of the agreement, a subsidiary of IMS will commence a tender offer to acquire all of the outstanding Baker common shares. Baker's Board of Directors unanimously approved the offer. Any shares not tendered in the tender offer will be acquired in a merger at the same cash price as paid in the tender offer. Closing of the tender offer is conditioned upon customary closing conditions, including the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act. The transaction is expected to close late in the third quarter or early in the fourth quarter of 2013.

"Baker is a well-known and highly regarded firm in the architecture, engineering and construction services industry. The transaction, which we believe delivers outstanding value to shareholders, results from a thorough, extensive strategic assessment process initiated by the Board early this year," said Baker's Robert N. Bontempo, Chairman of the Board of Directors. "We believe that this union with IMS will provide substantial value to shareholders, while reinforcing our commitment to our customers to continuously provide them with excellent service and high quality professional services."

In an effort to preserve Baker's heritage and culture, IMS has agreed to retain the Baker name, maintain Baker's presence in the Pittsburgh area, and keep the current organization and staff of Baker essentially intact.

Thomas J. Campbell, Chairman of IMS and Founder of DC Capital, said, "This is a significant step for both companies. The combination of Michael Baker and IMS will create a company with over $1.0 billion in revenue, approximately 5,000 employees, and a platform with global reach. IMS has a strong presence internationally with a history of operating on all five continents. This geographic footprint in support of our customers in growth areas such as infrastructure, development, intelligence, and technology combined with Michael Baker's complementary capabilities, highly certified, security cleared workforce, and distinctive North American presence will greatly enhance our collective ability to manage and execute larger projects."

Mr. Campbell also stated, "Michael Baker and IMS share a common employee and community-oriented culture. We both believe that our people are our most important asset and we share a commitment to investing in their professional development. Similarly, we believe our collective mission is to help our customers achieve their goals and objectives. Michael Baker has a depth of talent in all ranks within the organization. Michael Baker has a talented management team and we have been impressed by the interim leadership provided by H. James McNight, Chief Legal Counsel, and Michael J. Zugay, Chief Financial Officer, who together form the Office of the Chief Executive. Our goal is to ensure a continuity of Michael Baker's over 70 year legacy and culture. As such, the Michael Baker name and brand will remain, three members of the Michael Baker Board of Directors will join the combined company Board, and the headquarters for Michael Baker will remain in Moon"
Township, Pennsylvania. As a Pennsylvania company we have been impressed by Michael Baker's commitment to supporting the Pennsylvania community and we support the protection of this tradition.

The transaction will be financed through a combination of cash provided by IMS as well as debt financing that has been committed, subject to the terms of a commitment letter, by Jefferies Finance LLC. Jefferies LLC is also serving as exclusive financial advisor to IMS and DC Capital. Arnold & Porter LLP is serving as legal advisor to IMS and DC Capital.

Houlihan Lokey is serving as financial advisors to Baker in this transaction. Jones Day and K&L Gates are serving as legal advisors to Baker.
